

On the 25th May 2018 the new General Data Protection Regulation came into effect we therefore have laid out the information that we hold with regards to personal data.

The information we hold for customers with a credit account or on our database.

- Business name with relevant contact personal
- Business address/addresses
- Business Telephone/fax/mobile numbers
- Business e mail addresses for individuals and groups
- Company registration number (if applicable)
- VAT Number (if applicable)
- Bank details (where applicable)

This information is held within the below operating systems

- MS Outlook
- Sage

The information we hold about your business is used for general day to day trading and we will never pass on or indeed sell this information.

The information collected from customers using the website that are not either on our database or have a credit account.

No Cookies operate on our website and we do not process any form of payment from this platform therefore no details will be held, any information you volunteer to us in connection to any transaction will never be passed on to a third party and will be used only for a business transaction between our customer and Brent Plastics Ltd.